LOCKE STUDIES

Vol. 14

<https://doi.org/10.5206/ls.2014.717> | ISSN: 1476-0290

Originally published: 2014

Published online: 19 FEBRUARY 2018

© Locke Studies, 2014

Back Matter

Recommended citation:

Locke Studies. "Back Matter." Locke Studies 14 (2014). <https://doi.org/10.5206/ls.2014.717>

For more information about this article:

<https://ojs.lib.uwo.ca/index.php/locke/article/view/717>

Locke Studies is published by The John Locke Society.

This is an open access article published under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-ShareAlike 4.0 International license, which permits use, distribution and reproduction in any medium, provided the original work is properly cited and shared under the original license.

THE BLOOMSBURY COMPANION TO LOCKE

Edited by S.-J. Savonius-Wroth, Paul Schuurman and J.C. Walmsley.

Bloomsbury Publishing | Paperback | £24.99 / $39.95 | 352 Pages
ISBN: 978-1472528445

The Bloomsbury Companion to Locke presents a rounded view of the whole of Locke's work, offering rigorous conceptual analysis informed by detailed historical research.

A substantial 'Life' places Locke's work in its context. Ten essays detail Locke's contemporaries and influences, with the same number devoted to his early critics. Fifty succinct essays present the key concepts of his work in epistemology, theology, education, economics, politics and ethics. There are eight substantial synopses of his most important works. Four concluding papers provide an overview of Locke's reception and influence.

Contributors include Margaret Atherton, M. R. Ayers, Mark Goldie, Ian Harris, John Higgins-Biddle, John Marshall, J. R. Milton, Victor Nuovo, G. A. J. Rogers, Udo Thiel and Roger Woolhouse.

"The Companion is encyclopaedic not just in format but in range ... This volume is indeed a generally faithful companion to Locke studies which even serious scholars will be glad to have by their side."

Nicholas Jolley, The British Journal for the History of Philosophy.

"A useful addition to current scholarly literature on Locke for students and professional philosophers alike ... being distinctive in its aims and organisation, and providing very full coverage of the historical background to and reception of Locke's thought."

E.J. Lowe, Locke Studies.

WEBSITES

Visit our website

www.lockestudies.org

See also

www.libraries.psu.edu/tas/locke/

for the John Locke bibliography, list of manuscripts, and chronology, compiled by John Attig of Penn State University.

The database for Locke's medical reading and medical books described in Medical History, 42 (1997), 473–86, by the late Professor G. G. Meynell, and available at the Wellcome Library, London, can also be found at www.haven.u-net.com

For the Digital Locke Project of Locke's manuscripts, directed by Dr Paul Schuurman, see

www.digitallockeproject.nl/

Invitation to Subscribers

Subscribers are invited to offer one-page announcements of their newly-published books, if related to Locke, for inclusion free of charge. This would ensure wide publicity, as Locke Studies is bought on subscription by the libraries of major British and American universities, and also in France, Germany, Italy, The Netherlands, Denmark, Japan, Australia, Canada and New Zealand, among others.

Submissions should be sent as an e-mail attachment, and prepared in Word, or a compatible format, to fit A4 page size and styled to allow for reduction to 70% (e.g. Times font size 16, 3cm margins). Apart from bibliographical details, information on the contents can be included. Presentation should be as for an advertisement.

Non-subscribers should ask their publishers to submit a one-page advert, for which there would be a charge of £50.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

Locke Studies (2001–)

The price of Locke Studies is £32, or US $64, or €54. The journal may be obtained through agents or directly from the Editor, as a single volume or on regular subscription. Vol. 1 (2001) and the subsequent volumes are still available (at this price).

Individuals may obtain Locke Studies at a concessionary rate directly from the Editor, at the address given inside the front cover, by sending a payment of £16, or US $32, or €27 per volume.

Prices include postage by surface mail (airmail to Europe). Elsewhere, airmail delivery is £4 or $8 extra. Cheques should be made payable to 'Locke Studies'. Details of how to make direct payments are included on invoices.

The Locke Newsletter (1970–2000)

No. 31 (2000), 264 pp., including a complete index to the previous thirty years (69 pp.), is available on the same terms as Locke Studies (see above).

Previous issues of The Locke Newsletter can be obtained either through agents or directly from the Founding Editor, Roland Hall, at the former price of £17, or $34, or €30, which includes postage. (The concessionary rate for individuals, buying directly from the Founding Editor, is £9.50, or $19, or €17.50.) Nos. 1–30 (1970–99) are all available, though some early issues (usually nos. 1–8 and 16) can only be supplied in the form of xeroxed sheets. The contents of nos. 1–25 can be seen from the triple index in no. 25 (1994), or on the website (www.lockestudies.org). His address is:

Summerfields, The Glade, Escrick, York YO19 6JH, England

(email: rh1@york.ac.uk)

Cheques should be made payable to 'Roland Hall (Locke Studies)'

- 3 Recent Publications
ROLAND HALL
- 17 Some Possible Corruptions in the Text of Locke's Essay
J. R. MILTON
- 29 Locke, Ayers, and Abstraction
JONATHAN WALMSLEY
- 59 The Later Development of Lockean Abstraction
JONATHAN WALMSLEY
- 85 Experiential Objects and Things Themselves
YASUHIKO TOMIDA
- 105 Locke on the 'Species' of Substances
JESSE NEWTON
- 121 Locke and the Power to Suspend Desire
JULIE WALSH
- 159 Certainty and Sensitive Knowledge
DAVID SOLES
- 177 Theologia, Ethics, and Natural Law in Locke's
Classifications of Knowledge and Adversaria
GIULIANA DI BIASE
- 239 Locke and Wilkins on Inner Sense and Volition
PATRICK CONNOLLY
- 261 BOOK REVIEWS:
Stuart, Locke's Metaphysics
VICTOR NUOVO
Di Biase, La Morale di Locke
DIEGO LUCCI